

May 2021

Hello May!! What a special month May is! It's like the "unofficial" start to Summertime fun! Another school year ends for kiddos, Mother's are celebrated and Memorial Day cookouts are a must! Flowers and trees are in full bloom and there's a feeling of freshness in the air. Webster's dictionary defines the word Bloom as "to mature into achievement of one's potential". I never thought of the word bloom as achieving one's potential. But what a great way to describe what we do at ACC Adult Home Care. We are in the business of helping aging and disabled adults mature and live a life into one's full potential. Improving their quality of life while aging at home. We assist them as little or as much as they need us to, ensuring they are able to "Bloom at home" with grace and dignity. If you or a loved one would benefit from having additional assistance at home, give us a call for a FREE consultation.
